

Susan M. Endsley Iwinski

EDUCATION

University of Minnesota; Minneapolis, Minnesota
Master of Arts; Counseling Psychology, 1970
Minors in Child Development and Educational Psychology

University of Toledo; Toledo, Ohio
Bachelor of Arts; Psychology, 1968, cum laude

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Pastoral Counselor
Miami Valley Hospital Pastoral Counseling Center
March 2004 to present
Contract therapist to provide individual, marital and group therapy

Mental Health Therapist
Midwest Behavioral Care, Ltd.
August 2002 to present
Contract therapist to provide individual, family and group therapy

Clinical Counselor
The Counseling Center
The University of Dayton; Dayton, Ohio
August 1980 to June 2002
Responsibilities include individual and group psychotherapy, assessment and test interpretation, career counseling and assessment, family consultation, outreach programming for staff and students, supervision of practicum students, consultation to other university departments

BVR Assessment
Dean Shappell Ph.D., Birmingham, Michigan
July 1976 to May 1977
Intelligence, vocational and personality testing of clients for the Michigan Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation

Staff Psychologist

St. Vincent Hospital and Medical Center, Toledo, Ohio

January 1971 to December 1972

Responsibilities included creation and implementation of the Psychological Services Department, individual psychotherapy, personality assessment, patient care planning with Psychiatric team, consultation to medical units, outpatient diagnostic services to children referred from Toledo Public School System

Consultant

Candlelight Drug Rehabilitation Center

April 1971 to February 1972

Patient care planning and group co-leader

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Sinclair Community College, Dayton, Ohio

September 1978 to June 1980; January 2003 to January 2006

Instructor; General Psychology

The University of Dayton, Dayton, Ohio

Fall semester 2002; Instructor, Abnormal Psychology (undergraduate course)

Winter semester 1995; Instructor, Family and Marriage Therapy (graduate Psychology course)

Fall semester 1997 and 1998; Group Facilitator, Group Therapy (graduate Psychology course)

Detroit College of Business, Dearborn, Michigan

April 1975 to June 1976

Instructor, General Psychology

GRADUATE LEVEL PRACTICUMS

Psychology Trainee

University of Minnesota Hospitals; Dep't of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation

September 1969 to June 1970

Supervised counseling and psychological assessment

Counseling Trainee

University of Minnesota Student Counseling Bureau

September 1969 to June 1970

Personal and career counseling and assessment

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Ten or more hours of professional training in hypnotherapy, eating disorders, family therapy, cognitive therapy, solution focused therapy, ethics, supervision
- General Mediation training – 16 hours
- Divorce Mediation training – 40 hours
- Transformative Mediation training – 20 hours
- Volunteer mediator, Dayton Mediation Center
- Imago marital therapy training – 25 hours

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

A Protocol for Treating Eating Disorders. Presented at The American Counseling Association National Conference, April 1996.

Securing Client Cooperation: A Protocol for Treating Eating Disorders. Accepted for presentation at the Eighth Annual Eating Disorders on Campus, The Institutional Response Conference, June 2002.

Personality Style and Virtue: Implications for Leadership. Women's Leadership Conference, April 2002.

OUTREACH PRESENTATIONS

- Eating Disorders and Body Image
- Myers-Briggs Type Indicator
- Myers-Briggs Type and Teaching Style
- Myers-Briggs Type and Leadership
- Basic Conflict Mediation

PUBLICATIONS

Iwinski, S., and Shiner, E., (2001) Securing Client Cooperation: A Protocol for Treating Eating Disorders. Journal of College Student Psychotherapy, 15(3), 39-49.

LICENSE

Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (PCC), Supervising Counselor, State of Ohio, #E0000505, April 1988